Parish Information

The parish office is open seven days a week. Hours are Monday through Friday 8:00am to 7:00 pm and Saturdays from 9:00am to 3pm and Sundays from 9:00 am to noon. If you need to make contact with the parish staff, please call 773-525-3016 and leave a message.

Mass Schedule & Confessions:

All are welcome to join us for Mass at the following times:

Saturday Vigil - 4:00pm, Sunday Morning - 9:00am and 11:00am.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available on Saturdays at 3:00pm in the main church.

Juneteenth - Parish Offices Closed:

The parish office will be closed on Monday, June 20, 2022 in observance of the Juneteenth holiday.

Juneteenth (officially June 19) commemorates the 1965 announcement in Texas regarding the abolition of slavery in the United States. It is an important date in the long history of the restoration of the inalienable rights given by God to those who were forced into captive servitude because of their race. The arc of history continues to bend toward justice as the work of restoration is incomplete. We must all seek to end the evil of racism and put into practice the grace to see one another as God sees us, with inherent dignity and worth.

Pastoral Letter

by Deacon Eric Sorensen

*In the Eucharist,
the Lord continues
to meet us, dwell
with us, and fulfill God's promise to be with us always.
But are we open to meet him...always?*

This year our eldest granddaughter, Claire, received her 1st Communion. Many of her family members were in attendance, so much so we overflowed her assigned pew. Thus, Rita and I sat in the side pew, which offered us a great view of Claire, sitting in the front row.

She was sitting with a serious, attentive expression on her face. When she finally went forth to receive the Lord, you could see the anticipation, yet fixed concentration about her. But after receiving the Body of Christ, there was this burst of joy and excitement and a lightness to her step, as she returned to her seat, which was still showing in her class photo, her pictures with the family, and in her reception celebration afterwards.

We too approach the altar to receive the Lord. But do we feel the overwhelming humility of his humble gift of Himself? How can we not proclaim like Elizabeth to Mary, 'Who am I that my Lord should come to me?' And do we feel the joy bubbling up within us, of Christ's longing to be so close with us, and in us? As Mary proclaimed, 'My spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.' Does his presence put a smile upon our face by the love he shares so intimately? And do we continue to rejoice, as we go forth to serve those who need his presence in their lives? In the Eucharist, the Lord continues to meet us, dwell with us, and fulfill God's promise to be with us always. But are we open to meet him...always?

Since her 1st Communion, Claire now freely receives the Body of Christ each Sunday, no longer serious, but with her face beaming with joy. So great a gift is our Lord and Savior, that John the Baptist leaped with joy in Elizabeth's womb at his presence...merely at his presence. Yet, Christ is so intimately present within us. But do we joyfully approach and receive him?

Thank You Fr. Falasiko!

This weekend serves as the final weekend for Fr. Falasiko to serve at Saint Andrew as a visiting priest. He began his journey with us as a seminarian and then as an ordained deacon in 2020. Following his ordination as a priest last year in Uganda, he returned to Chicago for a year of advanced studies at Mundelein Seminary which he just completed. He now returns to Uganda for assignment within his home diocese of Kiyinda-Mityana. We are grateful for his years of service at Saint Andrew and ask God's blessings on his future ministry. Send Fr. Falasiko a message by emailing him at fmatovu@usml.edu

The Church: Community in the Spirit

The Church is a community - a community of people who profess the same belief in one God, led by the same Spirit, with a common mission: to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ's redeeming sacrifice. "We are all one..." but are we all the same?

We are all members of the Body of Christ. Just as the Body of Christ is one body, it is made up of different parts. In the same way, we serve different functions in the church, whether we are part of the laity, consecrated religious, or serving as clergy. Within these three groups we also serve in different ways. Some consecrated religious are devoted to prayer and contemplation, while others serve in missions around the world. Clergy might serve locally as pastors of a parish or at a high office in the Vatican. Lay people serve the church in their secular work (have you heard of "water-cooler evangelization?"), as well as when they become involved in parish life, from teaching Religious Education to serving on the Social Concerns Commission.

The same Spirit works uniquely in each of us for the benefit of all, sometimes even when bestowing the same gift! For example, someone may be a great public speaker and choose to become a priest, while another person with the same gift might become a lawyer defending social justice issues.

Ideally, a vocation is chosen when an individual shares their gifts while following the promptings of the Holy Spirit. As Frederick Buechner puts it, "The place God calls you to is the place where your deep gladness and the world's deep hunger meet."

No matter where the Spirit leads us, we are called to offer the best of ourselves to make the world a better place for everyone else.
